Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments	The manuscript "Green synthesis of metallic nanoparticles using leaf extract of Calotropis spp and their applications: a review" is the general interest but need some minor revisions: 1.-The authors, in a kindly manner, should consider the change in the title, they describe that the nanoparticles production is by mean green synthesis, but the authors need to specify what green chemistry principle is highlighted. Is precisely to note, that in any section of manuscript the green synthesis is highlight. The authors need to include this section, or 2.- Consequently, the author can change the title by Synthesis of metallic nanoparticles by mean natural extracts of Calotropis spp and their applications: a review.	Accepted this suggestion and have included a brief on green chemistry.
Optional/General comments
