FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
However, after correction, the editor sends for new opinion: I believe the work has been improved. Basic errors still persist, but can be corrected. The information presented in the manuscript is important and may contribute to future research. In table 1, replace the last two columns (genus and species by a single column - Species): ... and add the name of the species: Camponotus radiata, Camponotus compressus, Camponotus irritans, Camponotus parius etc ... (italic). Check all scientific names ... many of them are spelled incorrectly.	All mistakes are corrected
