

Editor's Comment:

The article is very poorly designed and difficult to read.

Many designations are not defined (for example ).

Different designations are used (for example, amounts).

There are typos (for example, page 2, property 2).

The list of references is very poorly designed (the name of the publisher or journal, the number of the volume, the number of the journal, the page are missing).

The author must correctly complete the article.
