

Editor's Comment:

I recommend accepting this paper for publication. A correction is necessary in the Material/Methods section under inclusion criteria (edentulous patients). #3 states "All teeth should be present". Do they mean no natural teeth should be present?

Also, in the conclusion a definitive statement is necessary such as: Based on the results of this study the lateral cephalogram is more reliable compared to the facebow transfer in determining the maxillary occlusal cant.

Editor's Details:

Dr. James Anthony Giglio
Adjunct Clinical Professor, Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery, School of Dentistry, Virginia Commonwealth University, Virginia, USA