PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	The title may be revised as marked in the text.	If "Genetic expression" is deleted from the title, the full message of the work cannot be explored.
Minor REVISION comments	The contents of the manuscript are not having enough potential to publish as full length article. Very small piece of information is described with limited population size. Scientific depth of the research is very less, it seems like simple observation and generalised conclusion. The article may be revised for short communication and resubmission.	The study covered coat colour distribution of Black Bengal goat in three different populations and three progressive generations. Further, nature of coat colour expression due to different gene action by observing successive progeny has been studied in this work. However, this colour functions of Black Bengal goat has not been studied so much in Bangladesh earlier. Thus, this type of work may not be considered as little value in this field.
