PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	The manuscript is interesting from local point of view. I think it is going to be of interest for the local educational authorities in order to implement it in the practice. It is not going to contribute in the field. The language needs good review.	Thanks much for your comments and reviewing of this article. Yes OSCEs are well utilized across many disciplines, yet it's relatively new to pharmacy schools, as you said; especially for schools in Turkey and North Cyprus. Sturpe et al (Sturpe et al 2010) reported that only 37% of pharmacy schools in the US were utilizing OSCE for assessment in PharmD programs. Yet as thanks to accreditation bodies recommendations much more school currently adopt OSCE worldwide. We agree that this article needs language editing and it was revised by a native speaker upon your recommendation.
