EDITORIAL COMMENT'S on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to editor's comments
The manuscript has many grammatical errors, even in the headings you can see inconsistency in the use of upper case/ lower case. Only the most relevant and most recent references should be given. Around 30 references should be sufficient. Conclusion is too long; it should be concise and focused; some points may be shifted to the discussion section. There are too many references. However, the authors should make effort to improve the language and description of their manuscript.	Thanks Sir for your comments. For the grammatical errors, we have worked on them. Concerning references, it was the recommendation of one of the reviewers from the version 1 of the manuscript. We have improved according to them. The conclusion is mixed with the perspective and it has been improved according to the reviewers' comments. One part of the recommendation has been shifted to the discussion as suggested.
