

Editor's Comment:

I have seen the Manuscript entitled : Effect of Climate Change in the stream flow, crop yields and NP levels at White Oak Bayou Watershed Using SWAT simulation: A Case Study"

under the code number: 2019/AJGR/49417

Also I have seen the reviewer's comments as well as the author's response for those comments..

My evaluation for the manuscript: The topic is interesting and the methodology used in this research is very good,

The results and conclusions are also important. The manuscript has minor comments and has been already done

By the author, So, I recommend to accept the manuscript for publication just after doing the editing the manuscript according to the AJGR instructions.
