

Editor's Comment:

Included is the authors corrected Ms v1 with my comments on the side. This Ms is far, very far from ready for acceptance and publication in the IJTDH or any other journal. The language requires precision, as do terms and concepts. Authors are invited to carefully review comments and try to come up with a better informative Ms. As said in my comments, I did not review the whole of the Ms; authors need to rethink and rewrite it. Reference citing requires revision.
