After reviewing the attached documents, I think the paper is not ready for publication. These are the justifications for the decision:

1. The paper was not written according to the academic writing style as mentioned by the reviewers. The paper needs to be reorganized to assist readers understand what it is all about.
2. The citations are very old. Except for the theory(s) other citations must be current.
3. Get English native proofreader to proofread the paper as there are a lot of grammatical mistakes.
4. Improve the format of the paper especially the reference format.
