FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
Based on the revised version of this manuscript, it is evident that author(s) had attended to some suggestions/comments given in the original paper. Moreover, some issues are still unattended to. These include; transfer/inclusion of the tables in the appendix to appropriate sections in the body of this paper, inclusion of study objectives of the study in flowing sentences with no bullet points or numbers closer to the end of the introduction section, you may not need to create a separate heading for justification of the study, you may incorporate it in the introductory part of this study and also, author(s) may need to adhere strictly to conventional referencing guidelines (no inclusion of page in the year of referenced publication). When all these and others when given thorough cross checking for corrections, will increase the quality of this research output.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) The tables have been included in the section where it was mentioned in the paper 2) The objectives had already been included as a flowing sentence in the study 3) The justification has been embedded in the introduction/body of the paper 4) The references have been edited in adherence to conventional referencing guidelines.
