Compulsory REVISION comments	Topics is interested, but I introduction there isn't yet about research gap. Author must explain why agricultural sector ? In the theoretical perspective, tis manuscripts still lack of explanation. Author must elaborater relevan theory and relevant research. In the data analysis, its still lack of final model estimation of VECM (not only express eviews output). The model is premature to judge econometric model about agricultural sector (output and government expenditure) and output (GDP). In the discussion, there was not discussion and ergumentation about empirical result.	Majority of the issue raised by the reviewer has been corrected in the manuscript. Also, I believe some of the reviewer comments is based on the omission of the literature reviews, which is now included in the revised paper.
Minor REVISION comments	Author must redesign the econometric model of GDP function in Nigerian economy.	From the model, the choice of variable use was as a result of data availability.
Optional/General comments	This manuscripts is good	Thank you.
