Minor REVISION comments	The manuscript "Molecular Identification and Genetic Characterization of Theileria lestoquardi in Sheep in Alhuda National Sheep Research Station, AL Gezira State, Sudan" investigates the presence of T. lestoquardi in ANSRS and to elucidate the different risk factors associated with the infection in order to formulate a sound control program of sheep theileriosis in Alhuda Station. The topic is interesting and the findings of the study were well compared with the previous studies. The work is well organised and written. Its subject is suitable for Asian Journal of Biology. While this work appears to have been successful, there are some minor points given	Thank you very much for your comments.
