Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments	Thank you for the opportunity to review the manuscript "Comparison of Prolactin serum levels between the remission and relapse phases of Multiple Sclerosis and healthy individuals". I find the paper very well written, concise enough and easy to follow. The topic is clear, the experiment was well designed, the analysis was well explained, the authors compare their results with other studies' findings and the discussion covered all my queries. Study limitations are not mentioned and it would be helpful to include it in the discussion section. Please make sure that there is an agreement between the references in the text and the list of references. Please confirm that the referencing style follows that currently in use in AJORRIN.	Thanks a lot for your kind and also detailed review of the manuscript. We corrected the reference sequences and also their relationships with the text content (which are also highlighted in the manuscript). Reference numbers were indicated in bracelets. References style follows the recommended style in AJORRIN. We also mentioned the limitations of the current study in discussion.
Optional/General comments
