|-------------------------------------|---|---|
| Compulsory REVISION comments | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Only mineral nutrition affected the yield, why the plant hormone cannot affect flowering and yield? 2. There is no explanation why you used 40 gr N/m² on this experiment, also the explanation you used 25 and 40 ppm of IAA. 3. In vegetative and floral characteristics, why only Flower stem diameter was affected by plant hormone. Please explain it. 4. Please explain how to measure the variables more detail. 5. The differences on variables were only by cultivars not by mineral nutrition and plant hormone. Please explain it. 6. Please check your title. It was not appropriate with your result. Please considered it. 7. Most of your references were too old (more than 10 years). Please change it with the new one. 8. Discussion not so deep. Please change it. 9. Elaborate your method more precisely and add some information about mineral nutrition such as the N you used from Urea or what else? IAA did you use for pure analysis or other form? | |
