

Editor's Comments:

I think the research work is good, maybe you should rethink as a short communication or as a short note.

The authors must follow the journal's norms and make the necessary changes, suggested by the reviewers before publishing them.

I conclude to accept it for publication, but they must make the suggested changes.

- 1.- The images are not well designed, the "X" and "Y" axes must be well defined.
- 2.- there should be no plagiarism
- 3.- the grammar must be correct
- 4.- the summary must be in accordance with the guide for authors.
- 5.- the authors must attend to the suggestions of the reviewers

Author's Reply:

Thank you, for your valuable decision and suggestions. The paper can be published as a short note or communication. As, the suggestions the journal norms are followed and hence necessary changes have been carried out.

1. The graph has been deleted as one of the reviewer suggested that graphs can be omitted has it has no meaning. Hence, it has been removed.
2. There is no plagiarism
3. The grammar of the sentence has been improved.
4. The summary is in accordance to the guide for authors
5. The suggestions have been attended.
