PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, corrects the manuscript and highlights that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. Demonstrate in the study that syncretism is more of a deliberate blending of religions to suit a people's faith rather than a process of conversion from one religion to another chequered or delayed by inconvenient compromises ii. The conclusions that African religions are more proactive in delivering judgements is not based on the findings of the study. Your conclusions must be drawn from the themes that were analysed : burial, death, marriage and naming
Minor REVISION comments	Describe in more details the theoretical framework, that is, the Post Colonial Theory and how it bears on the discourse. What are the differences in time and space between the pre- and post colonial dispensation for each of the themes analysed
Optional/General comments	The Problem Statement should be recast to show how well or badly syncretism has affected the African based on the novel.
