Always research papers must be according to the frames of the guidelines if the particular journal. You have not followed the guidelines because I found that the references in the text are represented numerically and is different in reference section.</li> <li>• Rewrite the abstract and the message must be concise. Write the material and methods using standard methods that we have followed for the experiment.</li> <li>• Grammar is very poor, correct it with English experts.</li> <li>• Sentences used are exactly similar to the reference ..... Hunashyal et al., 1997.</li> <li>• Some references are needed for the support of the events.</li> <li>• The main objective is to assess sewage water generation and compare the impact of utilization of sewage and fresh water for the irrigation on cropping pattern, yield and income. So the main objective of the research is not clear. Strongly I am suggesting, consider it for short communication</li> </ul>
