Compulsory REVISION comments	The paper seems to address the aim at addressing the influence of gender on supervisor-subordinate relationship. However the rest of the paper seems to appear uncoordinated to address this aim. There is need for the author(s) to address the following <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The abstract does not capture all aspects expected of a scientific abstract 2. The statement of research problem does not address the title of the paper 3. Objectives are not related to the topic 4. The references are dated. There is need to update the literature with up-to-date literature 5. The type of article is not a review paper, but a research paper 6. There is need to present results that are consistent with title and objectives of the paper 7. The conclusion does not seem to emanate from the findings of the paper
