PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	References must be contemporary preferably from 2015 to 2018. Areas of further research should be listed. The implications of the research should be expanded.  The researcher should explain how the "decolonization of the English literature" could lead to a wider acceptability of English as the preferred language of instruction as authors in Malaysia should be cajoled to write on the local context employing a unique genre.
Minor REVISION comments	A systematic review is defined as "[a] review of a clearly formulated question that uses systematic and explicit methods to identify, select, and critically appraise relevant research , and to collect and analyse data from the studies that are included in the review .  Kindly mention the limitations and strengths of the systematic review method.
Optional/General comments	Literature could be perceived differently in various culture but the points of intersection is that it conveys a theme/moral applicable to a specific society or a cross cutting perspective that is universal. Therefore an exposition of the uses of Literature within the Malaysian context should be provided and a comparison and similarities with other countries in Asia
