Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments	1.0 Highlights have been used to indicate corrections 2.0 Some sentences are too long and the meaning lost. E.g. 36-40, 136-139, 323-328 3.0 Some grammatical errors like starting a sentence with a small letter instead of a capital letter 4.0 Typographical errors
Optional/General comments	A good Original article with good analysis I would have thought that in Conclusion you mention the importance of Top Management in OSH. If there is no firm commitment from management we cannot have a proactive Safety and Health Policy. Commitment is Time and Money Management should not have been interviewed on Safety issues of their own company, they are not often objective, they hide issues because they do not want to spend money. Rather, two employees could have been selected at random and interviewed
