

Editor's Comment:

Principally, the author has responded well to the reviewers' comments.

But, the paper should have a special section on literature review and its theoretical framework. The author does mention some literature, but it should not be included in the Introduction. The introduction should consist of only "background", 'aim of the study', and in brief 'methodology'

In my opinion, the paper can be accepted if the author can meet this requirement.

Editor's Details:

Dr. Tulus T.H. Tambunan
Professor, Center for Industry, SME and Competition Studies, University of Trisakti, Indonesia