

Editor's Comment:

The manuscript may be acceptable with minor revision.

Major comments:

1. The presentation of References does not follow the Guideline of the Journal. The format should be corrected.
2."It is functionally a structural component of the microtubule-based flagellum involved in cell motility and calmodulin binding [10, 11, 12].", may be read as "It is functionally a structural component of the microtubule-based flagellum involved in cell motility and calmodulin binding [10-12]."

Thank you for sending me the manuscript to make a final decision.
