Elaborate Discussion section. This section should support and justify entire results of this study with comparisons of previous studies. 2. There are a number of studies already conducted in face recognition and detection. The authors should highlight how this study is different than other studies. Also mention contributions of this study such as practical, theoretical, managerial and research contributions. 3. The authors included a number of formulas but their actual implementations are not seen in this study. 4. Explain the outcome of figure 2 and 3 in detail. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1- This section already found as in the first part we represent the other ways of face recognition, then explained our supposed method later. 2- Done 3- Done 4- Done
