Compulsory REVISION comments	The case study is interesting. However, you don't compare your results with other results in literature and in other areas. This should be added. Also, you don't provide information on the kind of soil you have in the different areas examined. Are they similar or not? How you did select them? Figure 1 is not visible at all. Please provide a better version of it.	First, I would like to thank you for your valued recommendations. Please consider the following modification I made to the manuscript: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I updated Figure 1 - The soil samples location are selected based on previous structures problems. - The kind of soil is described in table 2. - I added a comparison section between this study and previous research as shown in figs. (4-5).
