Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments X	It is a very interesting paper about the role of bamboo in the climate mitigation. There is only a few mistakes in the text, as reported (in yellow). However, I think that it is necessary to highlight the difference between tropical bamboo (as Dendrocalamus and Bambusa, for example) and temperate bamboo (as Phyllostachys species). It is a very important question in terms of bamboo plantations.
Optional/General comments
