

Editor's Comment:

1. I have made some technical corrections to the 'final revised version' - Please refer to the attached file.
2. In addition, I noticed that the authors did not include the ETHICAL APPROVAL reference number as requested by one of the two reviewers.

I believe the authors have made the right to share their findings on TB/HIV co-infection, which is still a major problem in countries such as Nigeria.

As such I would recommend that this manuscript be accepted for publication in this journal, after the authors have corrected the technical errors.
