Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments	Ms AJBCMB 50719 requires some minor revisions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Having a sufficient number of animals available, they could have extended the search to other blood parameters alterable by malaria.</li> <li>- All the figures shown lack the references of the x and y axes. The choice of the type of graphic made by the authors does not make immediate the reading of the chart and the interpretation of the result. Furthermore, the legend of the figures must be implemented.</li> <li>- Again, the graphic of the bars of the statistical variation is not always clear, eg in fig.1 the variation is limited and this prevents the immediate view of the data.</li> <li>- The text must be checked in depth for the presence of innumerable typing errors and English form of the description of the sentences</li> <li>- the bibliography can be supplemented with more recent publications.</li> </ul>
