New Title of the Manuscript:	Diagnostic significance of Beclin-1 and Transforming growth factor $\beta$ in Breast Cancer
Type of Article:	Original Research Papers

PART 2:

FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
The authors answered my comment on the novelty of the findings partly – also in tissue sections tumor cells and periphery can be evaluated. The text still does not differentiate between mRNA and protein expression in the discussion. ER, PR and HER sensitivity has still not been replaced and examples for misspelling like clinicopathological are also still present.
