FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
As I mentioned before, This study is a simple and there is no merit and new data. In the abstract, there are many known information, not some certain results from the study. The methodology is very simple. This manuscript does not cover valid and some merit results. Thus it is very difficult to be published in an international journal. It could be considered for a local journal. However, the editor in-chief might be considered to be published and there is no any mind in terms of me as co-editor.
