Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments	Include any financial factor influencing stress among students. were the students asked about financial difficulties causing stress? Any cultural factors taken into account for international students? Discussion focusses on stress alone, to include depression and anxiety too.	Yes, students were asked about their financial status in questionnaire. Yes, as the study was conducted in medical colleges of Sindh, Pakistan, language barrier and ethical issues were explained to participants specially for international students. Depression and anxiety even the stress was not found to be significant in the study but the further two questionnaires included the stress causing and coping factors therefore we have emphasized more on stress rather than offer mentioned two.
