They were able to clearly establish the reason for adoption of m-voting over e-voting system in developing. However, for an academic work, flying phrases such as: "and so on" should be avoided. Literature review: The presentation of the reviewed literature was properly done. However, the presentations of the related works need to be modified. The author should ensure that capture recent studies in this domain (I.e. works within the last 5 years) Also, the reviewed literatures should not be presented in isolation. They should be linked with phrases such as: Also, Similarly, In addition… Conclusion: Recommendations for further studies should be included in the conclusion
Optional/General comments	The article have been well written. However, minor revision is required to make it better.
